Collecting Information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

The Early Years Foundation Stage (Welfare Requirements) Regulations 2012 place a legal obligation upon us to collect and process much of the information detailed above. Therefore we do not require your consent to collect this information as we have a fair and lawful reason for doing so.

Storing children's data

We ensure that access to children's files is restricted to those authorised to see them such as the Director, Manager, Deputy, designated person for child protection, the child's key person or the setting SENCo. These confidential records are stored in a lockable filing cabinet in a storage area in the main hall.

We retain your child's personal data for up to 3 years after your child no longer uses our setting, or until our next Ofsted inspection after your child leaves our setting. Medication records and accident records are kept for longer according to legal requirements. Your child's learning and development records are maintained by us and handed to you when your child leaves.

In some instances (child protection, or other support service referrals) we are obliged to keep your data for longer if it is necessary to comply with legal requirements (see our Children's and Provider Records policies).

Sharing information

The information that you provide to us, whether mandatory or voluntary, will be regarded as confidential. We do not share information about your child with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We have a legal obligation to process safeguarding related data about your child should we have concerns about their welfare. -) to enforce or apply the terms and conditions of your contract with us.
-) There is evidence that the child is suffering, or is at risk of suffering significant harm.
-) There is reasonable cause to believe that a child may be suffering, or is at risk of suffering, significant harm.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents/guardians, children and young people have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. Where a child is too young to give 'informed consent' the parent is the 'subject' of the file and has a right to see the information held.

Children's developmental records are shared regularly with parents/guardians and formal requests to access these is not required.

To make a request for your personal information contact Kate Sillett, Data Protection Officer, following the procedure detailed in our access to records policy.

You also have the right to:

-) Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
-) Withdraw consent where given
-) Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
-) Object to decisions being taken by automated means
-) In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations.

If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact Kate Sillett.
